Q2: Since your organization has been participating in the EIM governance development process, how successful has the process been and what lessons can be learned from this experience?

Respondent skipped this question

Q3: What, if anything, would you change in hindsight of your initial EIM experiences?

PG&E has no changes to offer in hindsight and appreciates the opportunity to comment on the governing body.

Q4: Looking forward, what does success look like for the EIM Governing Body and for the EIM governance process in 12 months and then again in 24 months?

The EIM Governing Body will be most effective in ensuring that it continues to exert primary oversight and decision-making authority over EIM-specific rules that uniquely apply to the EIM and its participants. PG&E also views success as both the continued growth of the EIM and smooth integration of new EIM entrants.

Q5: Given the policy outlook over the next 12-18 months, how can the EIM Governing Body be most effective?
